“ Aunt Marylou is my mother’s baby sister! My mom loved her very much they were very close! I remember going to visit my aunt and playing with her children! My mom liked to hug and tickle all the kids they loved it! Aunt Marylou was always smiling and so happy caring for all five children! I was so tired how she had so much energy to care for them and have a clean house also! She was my favorite aunt when we would go to Crystal beach she would take us to the park for all the rides and famous suckers! Great memories! I was at their wedding and she looked like a princess! I wanted a wedding gown just like hers she looked so beautiful! 😍🙏 God bless you Aunt Marylou!

“ From a chance meeting at Parkwood to a lasting family friendship I can’t list all our favorite time but from our Las Vegas trip to the many family times shared at both sides of the boarder we shared a closeness we will always treasure.
Prayers are with the family you were blessed with wonderful parents
