“ Grandma-I love you so much, and it wouldn't be possible to say how much I miss your sweet laugh, soft hands, and warm blue eyes. How much I miss you! The morning I learned of your passing, it was the clearest sky I think I've ever witnessed on land. It was extremely early in the morning, before the rest of the coast was awake, when I walked down the long pier to my ship, admiring the sky. It was beautiful, and the first thoughts to come to my mind were you and Mom. I couldn't wait to tell of the beauty I was witnessing, when all of a sudden, I witnessed what must have been a dozen shooting stars. Even in the middle of the ocean with the clearest skies, I've never seen so many. I took it as a sign of hope and faith. And after hearing of your passing, I became convinced it was a sign from you, telling me you'll always be with me. And then I realized it wasn't just you I was seeing in the sky, but all the angels that came down to escort you to Heaven.

I love you, Grandma.

“ The Lancaster, NY Weigand's Store proprietor.....She was such a nice lady. She would redeem that road-side discarded soda bottle, even when there was ants inside. "Go outside and wash that bottle out in a rain puddle, and shake the ants out", she would say. Afterward, You would receive Your 2 cents worth of candy. May she enjoy peace forever more with the Good Lord!
