“ We moved next door to the Bzibziak family in 1975. My son, then 9, let our dog out and she slipped out of the leash. We had only lived there for 2 days and she didn't know the area. He chased her, only to have her run down the street. A man came out and told my son not to chase her. This man called her and she stopped. He then crouched down and called her and she came to him. This man was 19 year old Matty. I came out and Matty said "Hi! I am not a stranger, I am your neighbor." He took my children into his yard and showed them a shed full of pigeons that he had. They thought he was the greatest person. That began years of friendship. I celebrated with him when he married Darlene and cried with him when she passed away. When I married Dave, they both hit it off right away because they both hunted, fished and liked snakes!! they spent a lot of time talking about their mutual interests. In recent years when Matty had relationship and health problems, I listened to him and tried to offer support. We helped him out with grass cutting, snow plowing and garbage. I gave him my # and told him to call anytime that he needed help. We talked about the front of his house and I told him that I would plant the flowers that he wanted in the Spring of 2015. I am so sorry that I didn't get a chance to do this for him. Maybe the new occupants will let me plant them in memory of Matty. Rest in Peace now, dear friend. You are no longer in physical pain. We will miss you.
