“ Jim, Marcia and family - We are sending all of our love and deepest condolences to you. Mike was such a special person who was loved by and will be missed by so many.

We will always remember Mike as the guy who was always smiling and was the first one to greet you with a hug or handshake when he saw you. He had such a kind heart. His love of sports was known to all and his love for his nieces and nephews was undeniable. He was always telling stories of things the kids did. He was such a proud Uncle. From family holiday parties, to get togethers at the farm, to watching a Bills game, we have many great memories.

Mike - We love you and will miss you. Rest in Peace.

Love,
Aunt Karen and Uncle Ed

“ Mike,
Words can't describe how much you will be missed by everyone.

Ever since I can remember, your smile would light a room and your sense of humor would make everyone laugh until it hurt.

From a young age, you always made me feel welcome. I will miss our conversations we had about hockey as well as, the different movies we've watched and their notorious one liners that came with them.

As a young hunter, it was always easy to come to you to with questions about hunting and more importantly the property which you knew so much about.

I will miss the good times we shared at the farm from hunting during deer season, cutting down and planting trees to the fires we had with occasional burning a chair or two.

Rest In Peace, Mike. We all love you and miss you dearly. I'm truly blessed to call you my friend.

“ It is with a heavy heart with my deepest sympathy and sincere condolences to the Noworyta family that I say goodbye to a friend.

Mike you had a big smile and an even bigger heart and oh I have to mention that your chicken dumpling soup in the crockpot was the bomb.

I won't ever forget hunting seasons with you. You knew the land so well. It was always a blast even if we didn't get deer which wasn't often.

I really enjoyed the weekends that you and I and Dave spent during the winter. Especially the winter I introduced you to ice fishing at Silver Lake. It was so much fun.

I know you loved the farm and it was evident by the pride you took in its upkeep. The place was always immaculate.

Your movie library was always a winner - we could always count on you to entertain us.

*I'll miss you Mike

“ Words cannot begin to express how saddened I am by Michael's passing. Mike was someone that could always light up a room. I have so many fond memories from growing up with him. We had so many holidays together where we would talk about the Sabres and the Bills.

I'll never forget going to trick or treat at your house and you scaring the life out of me in your Halloween costume. Regardless of how scary you looked that night, I wanted to hang out with you and Steve in the worst way! I always enjoyed your company because you always made me laugh. I'll always love you and the times we had together.

“ You are going to be missed by everyone, Mike. You were one that was there when anyone needed it and everyone appreciated your kindness, generosity, and company. We're all going to miss it.

I'm going to miss the random phone calls and hanging out at the farm with you. You were always all-in on waxing the floors, weed whacking (even though your allergies sucked), cutting up apple trees (I know you'll appreciate this), and taking care of anything else that needed to be done.

I'm going to miss the times we hunted beaver and hunting during deer season. And of course going out at night, and going to the local diner for breakfast in the morning.

Thank you for being you and for being the person you were to everyone else. We all love and miss you.

Go Bills! And maybe the Sabres will start doing something soon.

Rest in Peace.

“ I thought the below poem is appropriate for Michael

LIFE WELL LIVED

*A life well lived is a precious gift, of hope and strength and grace,
from someone that has made our world a brighter, better place.*

*Its filled with moments, sweet and sad,
with smiles and sometimes tears.*

With friendships formed and good times shared and laughter thru the years.

*A life well lived is a legacy, of joy and pride and pleasure...
a living lasting memory
our grateful hearts will treasure.*

*Thank you Michael for being so kind and generous to your Uncle
Larry. Love ya Mike*

“ Words will never fully explain how much you are loved by everyone. You had such a contagious sense of humor and a smile that lit up a room. I’ll never forget the times we spent together at the farm whether it was hunting (turning the creek drive into Brian’s creek drive!) or just burning things in the fire pit with your sister. Looking back at it now, burning things that would probably have gotten us arrested now, so we won’t talk about that. Those are memories that will last a lifetime for me.

I’ll surely miss the late night text messages back and forth on who the Sabres should trade or who the Bills should draft or sign in free agency. We’ll miss the Sunday steak dinners at our house, watching the Bills games, and going to the Sabres games, then to 716 to “wait for the traffic to lighten up” afterwards!

More importantly, thank you for being the Uncle that you were to Maddie and Owen. Rest in peace Uncle Mike. We will always love you.

Mr. and Mrs. and Jimmy Jennifer John Stephen. When I got the news of Michael’s passing I was heartbroken the times that I’ve spent with Michael and my brother and you Mr N at the farm hunting having a great time I will always cherish those like my brother Brian said Michael could enter a room in that room with light up he was a great person. Michael was one of those kind of people you can always rely on to help do any kind of work if you ever needed it. May your family find peace and we will continue to keep Michael and your family in our thoughts and prayers and cherish all the memories that we’ve had together with him

“ We are deeply saddened to hear about Michael’s passing. Our sincerest condolences to the entire family. Since I retired in 2014, I began to visit family in Buffalo more often. On several occasions Mike and I would get together. I found out that Mike was quick witted and funny. One evening we were out having a beer. Our bartender attempted to throw an empty can into a trash can from no more than three feet away, and missed. Without missing a beat, Mike said “way to go Tyrod” (in reference to an ex Bills QB). Everyone in earshot laughed. Mike knew his football. Within an hour of Tampa Bay signing Tom Brady, Mike texted me, stating “ congratulations Uncle Larry, Tampa is going to win the Super Bowl. I called him, and said no way Tampa is winning a super bowl with a 43 year old QB. Well, we know who was right on that prediction. I complimented him on his prediction, and said sure glad we didn’t bet.

I found Mike to be kind, generous, respectful, and would do anything for you. Most importantly, I found out that Mike loved his family, especially his nieces and nephews. He recently told me he was looking forward to taking Madison and Owen to Letchworth State Park. We love you Mike, you are missed, but will never be forgotten.

Love Uncle Larry and Aunt Janet
