My deepest sympathy to the family of Millie Babicz. Having attended Resurrection R. C. Church from 1965 to 1975 and then from 1986 to present, I first met Millie in 2013. She would sit in the children's room and I would sit in the church bench just in front of the children's room. We would prompt each other's attention during the Sign of Peace. We would talk after mass each Sunday.

At one point in early 2018, I hadn't seen her in church for some time. With grief, I was concerned that she had passed on without my knowledge. Then in summer 2018, while my mother and I ate at a restaurant on Clinton and Rossler Streets, Millie walked in with her friend to have lunch. I was happy to see that she was still healthy, in the mortal life.

I believe I only saw Millie a few more times at Resurrection since then, especially during 2020, amidst the COVID 19 pandemic, which has discouraged many parishioners from regular church attendance. She was a nice lady and she loved to talk with other parishioners. Then I learned of her departure in the Resurrection bulletin of 12/20/20, meaning that I missed her wake and funeral. Perhaps, my written commentary offers me closure. However, nothing compares to attending the departed's service and eulogy for transition to the eternal afterlife. After the pandemic curtains; when I return to Resurrection, I will miss her presence in the children's room when I bid the Sign of Peace to other congregants. May God reward her with many blessings in the eternal afterlife.
