“ *I was heartbroken to hear of Milly's passing. Me and my whole family loved Milly and Don and their family so much. I still remember all of them, my parents, the Gagliardo's and Milly and Don, hanging out at our house for years, laughing and having a great time. “ Elena, Gary, and Dona,

Please accept our heartfelt condolences on the passing of you mom. Upon hearing the news it gave us pause to reflect upon the times our families shared on Millicent and Phyllis aves. as well as our community at IHC.

Despite the separation of time, distance and years Millie and my mom keep touch through the years. After every phone call my mom would have a smile on her face and I realized Millie was an important connection from our days of living in Buffalo. I remember your mom as a kind gentle person who did a wonderful job raising her children.
