“ Paul tuned my pianos at Arts Academy and Hutch Tech. But more than that he was a friend of mine.

In the public school system he would get me extra stuff like a piano benches or casters for my pianos. He was a great piano tuner and when he left Buffalo Schools to retire there was a great void. He tuned at my house we would have a snack and talk about music. He tuned for friends of mine John Ricca and Betty Venator. In his early days he played accordion and he showed me some pictures of him doing that. I wish there were more like Paul.
