“ Many wonderful memories, but this is the first one that popped into my head. Paul would tag along with Kathy and I pretty much all the time when he was very young, probably not even school-age. He would join us on the sidewalk in front of our friends' house and play with Barbie dolls. He affectionately became known as Barbie Boy. It was so adorable that he wanted to hang out with his older sisters. I can still picture all of sitting on that sidewalk.
