“ Phil was my good friend when I went to Bishop Timon. I remember when we talked about going in the military. I chose the army, and of course Phil joined the Marine Corps. Seeing that Phil passed really made me sad and I wished we had stayed in closer contact. RIP buddy!

“ Phil and Betty came to visit us in Woodbury, NJ for Mary's baby shower. It was the first time we had met. Phil and Ernie talked about their time in the Marines for hours. Phil was so funny. He and Betty spent the night, and the following morning we all went to breakfast...spam was a specialty at this diner, and Phil was a big time fan. It was a great time, and in return, they had invited us up to Buffalo to visit them. We had wings and a tour of Phil's woodwork and his shop. We were all so impressed with his work. So long Phil: Semper Fi...!!
