“ My deepest sympathies to Bonnie and family. Just a few memories and thoughts...my career in engineering and management would not have happened if it wasn't for Ray hiring me at Hughes. He was a great manager for me...pragmatic, caring, passionate to win, humorous...all the traits of a great leader and good person. He was also a great friend. We had fun times at Sabres games, drinking Southern Manhattans at sales meetings, and eating buckets of wings over the years at Duffs while watching Nascar and basketball. Ray, you will be missed...”

One of the best things about Ray that the above comments from Adam only confirm, is that no matter who you were to Ray in his life, he treated you with the same respect; exposed you to the same sense of humor that could, at times, sneak up on you. Love you, buddy. Miss you every day.
