“ I have many beautiful memories of visits to Buffalo and especially visiting the Bakowski clan. I thought it was so cool to have a grandmother and aunt living under the same roof as the rest of the family and was privileged to have been a dinner guest when their tasty food was served. I remember the magnificent boat and "attempting" to learn how to water ski out on the lake; but my final memory of "Uncle" Richie is of him and his beloved talking bird, only known to me as "little pooper"! Rest in peace Uncle Richie, beloved friend of Leon and Josey Saskowski. Deepest sympathies and love to all the family, Kathy (Saskowski) Chorzempa
