November 1, 1957 - January 9, 2026

Robert J. Bommer Jr. (Robbie), 68 of Cheektowaga, unexpectedly passed away with loved ones by his side. Born November 1, 1957 to the late Robert Sr. and MaryAnn Bommer, Robbie was a 1975 graduate of John F. Kennedy High School. A lifelong family man, Robbie married his soulmate, Roxanne, on September 8, 1984. Robbie was a hardworking and avid outdoorsman. There was no project too big or small that he wouldn't tackle at his cabin or for his friends. Robbie was a dedicated volunteer fireman for Forks Fire Department for many years before becoming an exempt member. Besides his wife, he is survived by his son, Robert J. Bommer III, sisters, Darlene (Ray) and the late Marlene Bommer, niece Lindsey (Nick) Allen, nephews Justin Schreier, Damien (Bri) Rorick, and Andrew Wasierski and great uncle/honorary papa to Brianna, Arianna and Nico Allen

“Robbie was a good guy and one of my favorite cousins. He remembered how our grandmother (Babcia) called me “Polack Joe.” Whenever I saw or spoke to Robbie, he would always say, “What’s up Polack Joe”. He would on occasion send me gifts in celebration of Dyngus Day. When the Buffalo Bills became a good team again, Robbie sent me several Bills shirts. He even sent me a CD of the blues band he was in. Robbie will be missed, but he is at peace now and with Uncle Bob, Aunt Mary Anne and the rest of the Stanczykowski sisters, Uncle Gary, Marlene, and our Babcia. That is very good company in my book.

“Robbie, did you say that you liked Looney Tunes...or that you ARE Looney Tunes? LOL. I loved the man and everything about him. I especially liked the way he appreciated the timeless programs and music that we grew up with. There were a lot of “oldies but goodie’s” and Rob was certainly one of them. I’m glad that the next generation got to catch a glimpse of what “loyalty in friendship” looks like and how one person can create and spread love and joy “well” beyond themselves. Robbie was extremely intelligent. Intelligent enough to know that it’s not all “sunshine and lollipops”, but sunshine and lollipops is mostly what he focused on. God bless him. This place will never be the same without him!! I love you my brother and will miss you always
Your loyal (to the end and beyond) friend and horseshoe teammate
