“ I will always remember the nine of us cramming into the little brown Chevette to go to our little league games. Shirley and my mom Barb would take Nadine, Renee, and my brother Glen to the concession stand for some Swedish fish and watch the game from the bleachers, smoking and talking, while Dave Sr. coached Dave Jr., Tim, and me to victory. I know Shirley, Dave, and my mom are together now, watching us, sharing a pack of cigarettes and great memories.

“ I think its wonderful that everyone will have special memories of Shirley due to her personality, loving nature, willingness to try anything and ability to meet all of her childrens needs as they grew up. Shirley and David lived for their children and I saw first hand. I am sad in that I will miss her but glad she is with David. Her job here is done as her children are the most considerate, loving, loyal and giving siblings. God bless you Shirley and say hi to David for us. You will be missed !! Love, Elaine and Jim Daly
