“ Back in high school, Sue was a second mom to me. During those years my friendship with her son, Tyler was a crucial part of who I was and she always welcomed me into her home as though I were her own. We shared countless memories but one that cements her forever in my heart is the way that she always invited me into family trips to the Erie County Fair and she loved to secretly slip me her wine slushies, even if it did, on at least one occasion, result in one getting spilled in the back seat of her car (woops!). She will be missed dearly and lives on as one of the people that has played a role in shaping who I am today.
