“ Dearest Richie, Juliana, Ken and Zachary, Nory and I are so terribly sorry for the loss of your beloved Sue, such a loving and devoted wife, Mom and Grandmother to you, and a great cousin to us. We share in your grief, and are with you in prayer and thought at this most difficult and indescribably sad time. When my brothers and I lost our Mamusia, Sue's words of condolence, simple and sincere, and drawn from her own experience of loss, were a great help in the months that followed, and I hope that you will derive some small comfort from ours, in the coming weeks. With all our love and sympathies, Krysia.
